

ART EXHIBIT — Gay Youse, left, director of the Helen Bumpus Gallery, Duxbury, joins hostess Mrs. Maxwell Fish, center, and librarian Mrs. Richard Neubauer in yesterday's reception for the opening of the first annual exhibition of the League of Independent Artists held at the Duxbury Free Library. (Photo by Doug Tatr  au)

19 Artists Show Works

DUXBURY — The first annual exhibition of the League of Independent Artists opened yesterday with a reception in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library.

Showing in the exhibition are 19 artists, who live in Duxbury. Exhibitors are Ture Bengtz, Firmin Bishop, the Rev. Bradford Burnham, Marjorie Bush-Brown, Frances Fish, the Rev. Richard Hasty, Hope Kelley, Robinson Murray, Leah Nathanson, Geraldine Powell, Leo Prince, William Rathbun, Frank Rogers, Betsy Ross, Julia Smith, Genevieve Thomas, Dr. Sidney Wiggin, Janet Wheeler and Gay Youse.

The exhibition can be viewed through Aug. 4 during regular library hours.